Paul Bunge Prize 2022

The German Chemical Society (Gesellschaft Deutscher Chemiker- GDCh) and the German Bunsen Society for Physical Chemistry (Deutsche Bunsen-Gesellschaft für Physikalische Chemie) invite proposals for the Paul Bunge Prize 2022.

The Paul Bunge Prize honours outstanding research publications on all aspects of the history of scientific instruments. The prize is endowed with 7,500 Euro. It is awarded for either individual books or papers published within the last five years or for lifetime achievements. Submitted works may be published in English, German or French.

Applications and proposals should include the publications to be considered, a curriculum vitae and a full list of publications. The Advisory Board of the Hans R. Jenemann Foundation will decide on the prize winner.

Submit your application or nomination, including cover letter, CV and papers on the history of scientific instruments, by 30 September 2021 via the online form at www.gdch.de/paulbungepreis. Printed copies can be sent to the GDCh office attn: Dr. Jasmin Herr. Digital versions are explicitly preferred.

The award ceremony will take place on the occasion of the conference of The History of Chemistry division to take place in Karlsruhe from March 24 until March 25, 2022.
